

ʔayʔaʃuθəm Youth Cultural Internship

Occupying traditional territories that span from Cortes Island to Toba Inlet, the Klahoose Nation has existed since time before memory. Our primary village site, Squirrel Cove, is home to approximately seventy-five full-time residents who live and work on Cortes Island and in the surrounding areas. The remaining three hundred and nine members reside in off reserve coastal communities in the lower mainland, and Washington State.

Looking for a young energetic person that must love Indigenous culture and be interested in listening, learning and assisting in the developments of cultural teachings, protocols, dances, ceremony, and Indigenous ways of knowing, being, and doing.

- Willingness to learn our ʔayʔaʃuθəm from all language speakers of our Sister Nations
- Assisting Recording technician, recording, editing and uploading on Audacity program
- Assisting with the development of Language resources
- Participate in online language classes
- Participating in cultural camps, Canoe Journey safety, participate in cultural protocols.
- Follow direction from Culture Leader and Language Coordinator
- Level 1 First Aid an asset
- Tasks will shared between Language and Cultural Department.
- Show an interest in learning Indigenous Songs, dances, stories, teachings This is a fixed term contract till March 31st, 2027,

$20.00 per hour

Send resume cover letter including a few paragraphs on your interest in Indigenous culture and language, Indigenous ways of knowing, doing, and being.

Position available till filled!

Send resume to: duanehanson@klahoose.org

Information Inquiries

Cell: 250 201-4981