

Klahoose Coastal Adventures Xawges (Grizzly Bear) guide

Have you spent extended periods of time working in the wilderness, do you hold knowledge of coastal British Columbia wildlife and fauna? Are you passionate about sharing your knowledge with others? Do you love the thought of spending part of the year in Toba Inlet, a stunning and remote coastal location? If so, we are looking for grizzly bear viewing guides for our 2022 season.

We prioritize hiring neighbours from the surrounding communities where we operate our tours. If you are a Klahoose, Tla'amin and Homalco member or other local Indigenous community member interested in applying, please feel welcome to connect as we would love to hear from you. Our team in Toba Inlet and Klahoose Wilderness Resort is Indigenous and non-Indigenous and are committed to aligning with the Klahoose Nation's culture, traditional values with a committed to the environment and sustainability.

Klahoose Coastal Adventures is proudly First Nations owned and managed by QXMC. Our tour guides are from the local First Nations and are skilled at providing a safe and comfortable experience. We work with tour operators' partner who will transport guests on day tours from Campbell River to Toba Inlet where we host and guide grizzly bear viewing. Guests also arrive as part of our multi-day grizzly bear viewing packages from Klahoose Wilderness Resort.

Qathen Xwegus Management Corporation (QXMC) is the Klahoose First Nation business development corporation.
